based upon a finding of probable cause pursuant to § 37.2-809, it appearing from all evidence readily available, including any recommendation from a physician, clinical psychologist, clinical social worker, or licensed professional counselor treating the person, and if available, information provided by the person who initiated emergency custody, that the person (i) has a mental illness, and that there exists a substantial likelihood that, as a result of mental illness, the respondent will, in the near future, (a) cause serious physical harm to him/herself or others as evidenced by recent behavior causing, attempting, or threatening harm and other relevant information or (b) suffer serious harm due to his/her lack of capacity to protect him/herself from harm or to provide for his/her basic human needs, (ii) is in need of hospitalization or treatment, and (iii) is unwilling to volunteer or incapable of volunteering for hospitalization or treatment.

subdivision A2 of § 19.2-169.6, it appearing from all evidence readily available, including any recommendation from a physician or clinical psychologist treating the inmate, that the inmate (i) has a mental illness; (ii) there exists a substantial likelihood that, as a result of a mental illness, the inmate will, in the near future, cause serious physical harm to him/herself or others as evidenced by recent behavior causing, attempting, or threatening harm and other relevant information; and (iii) the inmate requires treatment in a hospital rather than a local correctional facility.

§ 19.2-182.9, that the respondent is an acquittee on conditional release who has violated the conditions of release or is no longer a proper subject for conditional release, and requires emergency evaluation to assess the need for inpatient hospitalization.

THEREFORE, you are commanded to execute this order, take the respondent into custody and transport the respondent from the respondent's current location to the location listed below, or if this order is entered pursuant to § 37.2-809, to the alternative facility of temporary detention identified by the employee or designee of the community services board if you continue to have custody of the respondent when an alternative facility is identified.

transfer custody of the respondent to the alternative transportation provider, DC-4000, ORDER FOR ALTERNATIVE TRANSPORTATION PROVIDER, is attached.

Tucker's Pavillion Chippenham 7101 Jahnke Rd, Richmond, Va, 23225

Central State Hospital 26317 W. Washington Street, Petersburg, VA 23803

Prior to placement in the above temporary detention facility, transport the respondent for emergency medical evaluation or treatment for medical evaluation or treatment as may be required by a physician at the temporary detention facility

Tucker's Pavillion Chippenham 7101 Jahnke Rd, Richmond, Va, 23225

The duration of temporary detention may not exceed the period authorized in Virginia Code § 37.2-809, subdivision A 2 of § 19.2-169.6 or § 19.2-182.9. If this order commands that the respondent be detained pursuant to § 37.2-809, the director of the facility of temporary detention may release the respondent prior to a hearing as authorized in § 37.2-814 if it appears, based on an evaluation conducted by the psychiatrist or clinical psychologist treating the respondent, that the respondent no longer meets the criteria for temporary detention. If the respondent is detained by this order pursuant to subdivision A 2 of § 19.2-169.6 or § 19.2-182.9, the director of the facility of temporary detention may not release the respondent without an order of a judge. If the judicial officer issues this order pursuant to § 37.2-809, or subdivision A 2 of § 19.2-169.6, this order becomes void if not executed within 24 hours after issuance.

TO ANY HEALTH CARE PROVIDER as defined in Virginia Code § 32.1-127.1-03, or other provider who has provided or is currently providing services to or is currently evaluating the respondent; Virginia Code § 37.2-804.2 requires you to disclose certain information upon request.
